FLASHCARD GAMES

BRING ME	Put flash cards on a table at far end of class. At other end	New vocabulary position three chairs side by side. Teacher sits in middle	140W Voodbalary with one stude either side. Teacher shouts, "Bring me a horse." The two studes stand up and leg it over to the table
THE OIDOLE	and the first to bring the teacher the horse card wins.
THE CIRCLE	Ctudente stand in a sirale facing inwards. One student	New yearhulang recognising
	Students stand in a circle facing inwards. One student stands in the middle of the circle. The teacher gives each	New vocabulary; recognising spoken words; this is a great student in the circle a flashcard, for example of food. Each	game for the playground.
	student must look at the card and hold it behind their back	3
	so that the teacher can see it.
	Now the teacher says for example, "Pizza and ice cream!"
	The students with these two cards must exchange places by running across the circle. The student in the middle tries to rob a space. If the student succeeds, the student who failed to exchange places is now in the middle.
MEMORY
	Place 7 cards along the board. Listen and repeat words and	New vocabulary turn cards around, back to class. Studes try to remember all seven words in the correct order for points. When a student says the wrong word or takes too long, show the troublesome card before starting again with the next student.
PICTIONARY II
	Show a card to one student who has to draw it on the	New vocabulary board. The first one to guess the word gets to draw the next one.
PISTOLS AT DAWN	one.
	Two studes come forward. Give each one a flashcard which	New vocabulary they hold behind their backs. Shout, "Draw!". Studes reveal	· their cards to each other, and the first to name the picture DEVEN	wins. Winner stays on.
REVEAL	Place 2 flashcards together, face2face. Slowly raise one.	Vocabulary Revision
	First student to say what the flashcard represents wins.	Vocabulary Nevision
WHAT'S MISSING?
	Place 7 flashcards along the blackboard. Gather them up,	New vocabulary remove one card and put them back. First stude to say the missing card wins.	