

Exclamation Idiom Exercise

A Translate the idioms.

| Idiom                  | Meaning                   | Translation |
|------------------------|---------------------------|-------------|
| 1- Just what I needed! | ... a – I don't care! ⇨   | .....       |
| 2- So what!            | ... b – How dare they?! ⇨ | .....       |
| 3- What a cheek!       | ... c – Oh no! ⇨          | .....       |
| 4- What's the point?   | ... d – Why? ⇨            | .....       |

B Circle the correct answer.

- 1 A: Let's buy a new car.
B: ..... There's nothing wrong with the one we have.
A What's the point?
C What's going on?
B So what?

- 2 You get back home from work and see a police car outside your house.
You: .....
A What's the point?
B What's going on?
C So what?

- 3 A: I'm afraid I've broken the computer.
B: .....
A Just what I needed!
B So what?
C What's the point?

- 4 A: I'm going to buy a new stereo.
B: .....
A Just what I needed!
B What's going on?
C What's the point?

- 5 Carol borrowed some books and then took them on holiday without asking.
A What's going on?
B What a cheek!
C What's the point?

- 6 A: Real Madrid won The King's Cup.
B: .....
A So what?
B What's going on?
C What's the point?

- 7 A: The phone bill arrived today.
B: .....
A What's the point?
B What's going on?
C Just what I needed!

- 8 A: Darren didn't offer to help pay for the shopping.
B: .....
A What's going on?
B What a cheek!
C What's the point?

Answers

A 1C 2A 3B 4D

B 1C 2A 3A 4A 5C 6B 7C 8A

