

Need, Needn't and Should Exercise

I need to buy a new one	- a necessity
You needn't come	- not necessary
You should come	- it's advisable

A Fill the gaps with need, needn't or should.

- 1 Remember you to take a torch and a tin-opener when you go camping.
- 2 You go to the shop. I've already bought the milk.
- 3 You say sorry to your teacher for being late. It's only polite.
- 4 You bother washing up. I'll do it in the morning.
- 5 She go to church if she doesn't want to. It's not obligatory.
- 6 If you want to pass all your exams, you to make a good study plan.
- 7 If there's anything you, let me know.
- 8 You go and see Granny. You know how happy it makes her.
- 9 Cheese and biscuits to be kept in tupperware containers; otherwise the cheese goes hard and the biscuits go soft.
- 10 You pay now. You can pay me next week.
- 11 Clare and Simon bring their car. There's plenty of room for them in ours.
- 12 Families spend more time talking, instead of just watching the telly.
- 13 I really to study harder at my course this year.
